January monthly meeting review

An estimated 40 to 50 people attended the second annual roundtable meeting. Attendees seemed engaged with the roundtable topics and facilitators: Bankers Hill Parking District (Doug Scott), Quality of Life (Ann Garwood), Balboa Park/West Mesa (Bruce Dammann), Save Our Heritage (Amine Hayes), Friends of Maple Canyon (John Lamb), and Bankers Hill Business Group (Wendy Hileman).

Treasurer's report

Treasurer John Percy reported that the group has $2504 in the bank.

January monthly meeting minutes

The minutes were approved with corrections, and the corrected minutes submitted to Ms. Benedict January 20.

T shirts

Ms. Garwood will begin working on the design. She is thinking of something more than a boring white shirt, such as colored sleeves and a V-neck.

Business directory

All the information has been collected and categorized. The first draft will be sent to the members for review January 20. Ms. Hansen will handle future updates and corrections.

Web site

Ms. Benedict reported that she spent $50 to promote January's roundtable on Facebook and that the annual web-hosting fee of $95.88 is due. The group approved both expenditures.

Goals

Ms. Moors asked the steering committee to think about our goals—both for the steering committee and the community at large—and email her our ideas.

Future BHCG monthly meeting topics

- February's meeting will feature SOHO's Bankers Hill History (Sarai Johnson), including the Irving Gill exhibit.
- Bruce Damman will host the March meeting, which will feature the San Diego History Center and Trees for Health.
- A presentation of UCSD's Bankers Hill neighborhood study was suggested for the April meeting; Chris Ward will be invited.
- May will see the election of new officers.

The meeting adjourned at 6:25 p.m.

Respectfully submitted by Marion Hansen, Secretary
